

AFRIVATE EMPLOYEE ONBOARDING HANDBOOK

Document Code	AFRI-EOH-01
Target Audience	New Hires & Existing Staff
Status	Mandatory Reading

WELCOME TO AFRIVATE

This handbook is a simplified orientation guide for new and existing staff. It summarizes culture, communication, performance, and conduct expectations.

Note: The handbook does not replace the SWP. In the event of conflict, the SWP prevails.

1. MISSION & CULTURE OVERVIEW

Overview of Afrivate's mission and culture: We are building the future of user connectivity. Our culture is rooted in excellence, ownership, professionalism, and high-speed execution.

2. SCHEDULE & AVAILABILITY

Summary of work schedules and availability expectations:

- Official Days: Monday to Thursday.
- Friday to Sunday: Off-days / Asynchronous updates.
- Core Hours: You must be reachable and active during team-defined hours.

3. COMMUNICATION STANDARDS

Communication rules and response time standards:

- The 4-Hour Rule: Official messages received through ClickUp must be acknowledged within four hours.
- Official Communication Channel: ClickUp is used for internal communication, coordination, clarification, and follow-up.
- Portal System of Record: Use the Afrivate Portal to complete and record every workflow available within it, including tasks, weekly check-ins, leave, onboarding, goals, learning submissions, surveys, feedback, policy acknowledgements, resources, events, and people operations.

- Email: Use your @afrivate email for account access and approved external or formal correspondence. It does not replace ClickUp for internal communication.

4. PERFORMANCE & REPORTING

KPI and reporting expectations:

- Every employee maintains 3–5 Weekly KPIs.
- Agree goals with your Team Lead and record them through Portal → Growth → OKRs.
- Submit your weekly report through Portal → Weekly check-in; your Team Lead will review it there.
- Keep assigned Portal tasks accurate by updating status, progress, hours, and blockers.
- Goal: Support the target of 1,000,000 users by Dec 31, 2026.

5. EVALUATION & CONDUCT

High-level appraisal and discipline overview:

- Appraisals are 60% Output and 40% Soft Skills.
- Afrivate uses a progressive discipline system (Warnings → PIP → Termination).

Code of Conduct summary:

- Act with integrity.
- Pursue constant excellence.
- Respect the hierarchy.
- Protect company data.
